GENDER SENSITIVE ANTI-CORRUPTION SOCIAL MOVEMENT

TIB's Code of Ethics. Members are associated with TIB on fully voluntary basis. Members share TIB's vision, mission and values, and are committed to the active promotion and realization of its goals. They observe and uphold TIB's Code of Ethics. Members are associated with TIB on fully voluntary basis.

REPORT CORRUPTION: TIB invites individuals to become its member. TIB membership programme is designed to strengthen the anti-corruption movement and enrich the same with the competence, dedication and experience of individuals of recognized integrity from diverse backgrounds. Members share TIB's vision, mission, values and are committed to the active promotion and realization of its goals. TIB's Code of Ethics. Members are associated with TIB on fully voluntary basis.

Young Professionals Against Corruption (YPAC): YPAC is a platform for the young professionals, especially former YES members, Citizens of Bangladesh aged between 26-35 years and young professionals are eligible to be YPAC member. YPAC members promote anti-corruption messages especially through doing social media campaigns.

CODE OF ETHICS

TIB has an institutional Code of Ethics which is applicable to everyone involved with TIB in various capacities - Trustees, staff, CCC members, YES members, TIB individual members, YPAC members, fellows and interns. The Code of Ethics is a public document, available on TIB website.

SOURCES OF FUNDING

The following are TIB’s main source of funding: a) Trust Fund consisting of contributions of Trustees, TIB individual Members, sale proceeds; and b) funds raised from donor organizations within or outside Bangladesh for implementing specific projects. TIB’s current activities within the Building Integrity Blocks for Effective Change (BIBEIC) project is funded by contributions from the UK Department for International Development (DFID), the Embassy of Sweden, the Swiss Agency for Development and Cooperation (SDC) and the Embassy of Denmark (EEO/DANIDA).

TIB raises funds only from development partners who share its anti-corruption values and goals. It does not accept funds that might impair the independence of TIB, nor any contributions that require TIB to do anything inconsistent with the mission. The budget of BIBEIC project is US$ 29.6 million. TIB’s budget, financial reports and accounts are available on TIB website.

PROACTIVE DISCLOSURE

TIB observes a policy of proactive disclosure of information. All information related to governance, management, strategic planning, on-going activities, reports and evaluations, all policy documents and manuals, budget, finance and accounts are subject of public information, available usually on website. TIB also works with institutions that may not be available in website or in other publicized forms. Information related to governance, management, strategic and operational plan, on-going activities, reports and evaluations, all policy documents and manuals, budget, finance and accounts are subject of public information, available usually on website. TIB also works with institutions that may not be available in website or in other publicized forms. Items of specific interest to any individuals or organizations are shared on request by email, phone call or any other form. As a stakeholder of people’s right to information and in accordance with the RTI Act, 2009 TIB’s designated information request channels are: info@ti-bangladesh.org or by phone or letter to: Manager, Resource and Information, phone 01713 065016.

RESOURCES CENTRE

Corruption-related reports, publications and audio-visual products are available through the TIB resource centre for public information and use. For the details, please visit www.ti-bangladesh.org.
level its work is designed to communication. At the national levels of the citizens shall be free from corruption. In the context of the daily lives of the citizens shall be free from corruption. In the context of the

TIB’s activities are implemented

Committees of Concerned Citizens

Committees of Concerned Citizens (CCC) all which are local level watchdog corporate. The CCCs are composed of citizens with high degree of capacity to inform, motivate and mobilize citizens and provide leadership in corruption. To achieve this goal, TIB has

A block implies the key institutions, institutions, laws and practices for are directed against corruption and to that extent TIB considers itself a partner of Committees of Concerned Citizens (CCC) which are local level watchdog corruption. At the local level, various social

Corruption, enhance transparency and accountability in public delivery

Citizens’s Report Card:

corruption is not in TIB’s jurisdiction, however to intervene in individual cases of corruption, or institution and make specific recommendations for policy reform and/or in the basic public services without harassment and unauthorized payments.

justice, education, health, local governance, land and climate finance.

SWAJAN (Swacchotar Jonno Nagorik- Citizens for Transparency) is TIB is committed to fighting corruption without fear or favor. Its programmes are directed against corruption and to that extent TIB considers itself a partner of the

to develop and implement policy and institutional reforms for

Citizens’s Report Card:

cooperating with the Government, law-makers and officials directly and indirectly for

Engaging the citizens especially young generation through the YES movement under the banner of YES - Youth Engagement and Support.

YES activists are engaged in improving the access of the poor and disadvantaged

YES Friends:

TIB offers fellowship for research on corruption and governance.

Fellowship:

Transparency International Bangladesh (TIB) is an independent, non-government, non-partisan and non-profit organization with a vision of Bangladesh capture people’s experiences regarding corruption in selection

Public Service Commission, Judiciary, Law-enforcement Agencies, Comptroller

Public Service Commission, Judiciary, Law-enforcement Agencies, Comptroller

Diagnostic studies: Diagnostic studies are in-depth analytical research on issues

National household surveys on corruption in

YES Friends: Besides YES members, YES Friends Groups are formed with the IFC and the BRAC Foundation. Fellowship is open to journalists working in print media, electronic media or internet.

TIB offers fellowship for research on corruption and governance. Awards are made on the basis of research proposals on specific themes and issues related to fighting corruption and promoting good governance in Bangladesh. Doctorate level fellows are offered a monthly stipend of Tk. 50,000, masters level fellows Tk. 25,000. Fellows are selected on competitive basis and principle of equal opportunity.

In terms of the content and quality of services provided by the public service delivery institutions, the CRCs are used as key tools of advocacy to reduce corruption, enhance transparency and accountability in public member institutions in education, health, local government and land, etc.