Dear Colleagues,

Transparency International Bangladesh (TIB) began its activities as a Trust in 1996. In 1998, it obtained registration from the Government of Bangladesh as a Non-Governmental Organization (NGO). Transparency International Bangladesh Employees’ Contributory Provident Fund was established on 1 April 2009 with the approval of the National Board of Revenue (NBR). The fund shall be treated as a recognized Provident Fund with the meaning provided in the Income Tax Ordinance 1984, for the benefit of the employees of the Organization.

With the felt need for detailed operational procedure of Transparency International Bangladesh Employees’ Contributory Provident Fund, this manual has been prepared in the light of Deed of Trust and Rules of Transparency International Bangladesh Employees’ Contributory Provident Fund. If any confusion about any clause of this manual arises, Transparency International Bangladesh Employees’ Contributory Provident Fund's Deed of Trust and Rules would be the basis for taking decision on matters of confusion and in such case, the decision of the Board of Trustees would be considered final.

This manual shall be used as a brief guideline for dealing with matters concerning the Transparency International Bangladesh Employees’ Contributory Provident Fund. The use of this manual will enable all members of the fund not only to get a better understanding of their rights and obligations, but also to find solutions to problems arising out of the day-to-day operations of this fund.

Operations & Management Manual has been approved by the Board of Trustees of Transparency International Bangladesh Employees’ Contributory Provident Fund at its 21st meeting held on 4th December 2017.

I would request all the staff to kindly read this manual thoroughly and carefully and thus draw maximum benefit from this manual.

Abdul Ahmad FCMA
Chairman
Transparency International Bangladesh
Employees’ Contributory Provident Fund
Date: 20 December 2017
SECTION I

1. Objective of this Fund
The objective of the Transparency International Bangladesh Employees’ Contributory Provident Fund (hereinafter referred to as TIB CPF) is to constitute a compulsory Contributory Provident Fund for the employees, to which both the employees and the employer would contribute. After joining the Organization, all regular staff would be members of this fund and contribute a certain percentage of the basic salary. The employer would also contribute the same to this fund. After departure from the Organization, the staff will receive his/her amount as per policy or his/her nominee will receive his/her amount as per policy in case of death of a staff member. This fund is for the benefit of the employees of the Organization.

2. Commencement of the Fund
TIB CPF commenced on the 1st DAY OF APRIL IN TWO THOUSAND NINE Christian Era. The staff who joined before 1st April 2009 shall be members of that fund from that date. The staff who joined/who will join after the commencement date will be members of that fund from the date of his/her joining at TIB.

3. Membership of the Fund
Staff who will be appointed for more than one year in a TIB project or Organization, will be a member of TIB CPF. Members, who will be appointed for more than two years in TIB project or organization, will be entitled to get the organization’s contribution with profit. In other case, members will be entitled to only his/her own contribution with profit.

After joining the organization, the staff members shall apply for membership using prescribed application form (appendix –A) of this Fund and shall also fill up the nominee form (Appendix-B) for nomination to get his/her fund in case of his/her death.

4. Withdraw of Membership
Once an employee member joins the Fund as a Member, no Member shall have the right to resign from the Fund while remaining in the service of the Organization.

5. Nomination: Payment to Nominees in case of Death of a Member

Nomination of a Person:
Each member may on joining the Fund nominate a person or more than one person to receive the amount which may be due for payment from the Fund in the event of his/her death before that amount has become payable, or having become payable has not been paid. If any person thus nominated is a minor or under any disability to give a legal discharge for any payment, the member at the same time shall appoint a person who is of full age and capable of giving a legal discharge for the purpose of receiving payment on behalf of the minor or person under disability, so long as the minority or disability continues.

Nomination of two persons:
If a member nominates more than one person, he/she shall specify in the nomination the amount or share payable to each of the nominees in such manner as to cover the whole of the amount that may stand to his/her credit in the Fund at any time.
Fresh Nomination:
In the event of the death of the nominee during the life time of the member, the member may nominate or appoint another person in the place of the nominee so dying.

Making the Nomination:
Every nomination made under this Rule, shall be in writing signed by the Member, whose signature must be attested by two witnesses, and shall be according to the format given in Appendix-B to this manual and shall remain in full force and effect until the death of the nominee or until the same be revoked in writing by the Member by whom the same was made and a fresh nomination be made in manner aforesaid.

Failing to appoint Nominee:
In the event of any Member failing to appoint a nominee (and if necessary a person to receive on behalf of the nominee) the amount to the credit of such Member shall at his/her death be paid to the executors or administrators of such deceased Member or to any relative or dependent of such deceased Member whose circumstances appear to the Trustees to warrant the concession.

Payment to Nominee(s):
Each Member must on becoming a contributor to the Fund forthwith nominate a person as the object of such trust on the terms that such person shall become the object of such trust only in the event of his/her death.

In the event of death of a Member, Payment shall be made upon claim by the person entitled for payment. If payment shall not be claimed within 3 years from the date of death, the amount to the credit of the Member shall lapse absolutely to the Fund and be carried to the Revenue Account.

Effective date of Nomination:
Every nomination made and every notice of revocation given, by a Member shall, to the extent that it is valid, take effect on the date on which it is received by the Trustees.

6. Member’s Contribution
Each Member shall contribute to the Fund a sum equal to 10% (ten percent) of his/her basic salary or wages whilst in the service of the Organization just after joining as probation staff.

7. Organization's contribution
The Organization shall also contribute the same amount to the fund that is 10% (ten percent) of the basic salary or wages of the member contributing his/her portion to TIB CPF.
SECTION II

The Board of Trustee of TIB CPF shall maintain one bank account for operation of the Fund. After disbursement of Salary & Allowances to the staff members, the Members’ own contribution and the Organization’s contribution to TIB CPF shall be received at TIB CPF bank account (a/c) from project bank a/c. All money received from time to time by the Fund shall be deposited in the Fund’s Bank Account maintained in any scheduled Bank in Bangladesh.

The bank accounts shall be used for receiving and withdrawal of funds for their financial transactions. Change of bank signatory will require approval of the Board of Trustees of TIB-CPF.

All bank deposits and withdrawals and bank interest earned shall be recorded in books of accounts and it shall be considered income of the fund.

Payment procedure:
Payment vouchers will be raised together with the note of authorization for expenses/payments, bills and acknowledgement of receipts, advance/loan request form in case of advance/loan etc. Payment of any amount shall be made through BEFTN/S2B/account payee cheque.

The assigned person shall be responsible for disbursement and keeping vouchers. The assigned person shall keep the cash book, general ledger and cheque book as well as other relevant financial records of TIB CPF under his/her custody.

Counterfoils of all cheques with the name of the payee and with the initials of the cheque signatories should be preserved. All transactions shall be recorded in the cashbook and general ledger. Used cheque book and cancelled cheque leaves, if any, shall be kept in office under the custody of the assigned person for at least six years.

In case of disbursement through BEFTN/S2B, payment advice shall be preserved with payment voucher. In such case, acknowledgments of the recipient will not be required.

10. Automation in Financial Activities of CPF

Purpose and Scope
Use of technology and automated system in financial activities is the need of time. Automated financial management system shall simplify processing procedure and save time and resources. Technology and automated system shall be used in financial management system in such a way that it would not hamper security and internal control mechanism of TIB CPF and shall not cause any loss of resources in any way.

Confidentiality:
The Board of Trustees shall set appropriate techniques to protect the confidentiality and integrity of electronic information and privacy of its users, to the extent required or allowed as may be decided by the Trustees. The Board also aims to ensure that the user of electronic communications shall comply with relevant policies of the Government of Bangladesh and also IT user guideline of TIB.

Password Security
The IT policy of TIB shall set such a procedure which shall ensure security of passwords of accounting system, formulators of financial information, and protect the server which contains financial data and offside data storage etc. The IT policy of TIB shall be applicable for operation and management of TIB CPF in respective aspects.

Installation of Accounting Software

Accounting system of TIB CPF shall be an automated one. Accounting software shall be installed in the computer of designated staff of the fund. The software will also be installed in the computer of External Auditor for the purpose of audit. The Member Secretary of TIB CPF shall be the Administrator of TIB CPF software.

Users of Accounting Software

Users of Accounting Software would be designated staff of CPF. There may have other users depending on necessity. User-wise access to different modules should also be ensured to give access for data entry, reporting, analysis of data etc.

Set-up of user groups of Accounting Software

User groups such as data entry user, viewer and administrative user shall be formed after installation of Accounting Software.

Administration of Accounting Software

There shall have a designated staff member who shall act as administrator of the Accounting Software of TIB CPF. The Member Secretary will be the administrator of accounting software of TIB CPF. He/she shall post entry. The administrator shall also control user access to different modules and features within the modules, in view of set user groups.

Storage of back up Files

One copy of back-up files of electronic accounting data shall be stored in the server stored on the office premises daily. Another copy of back-up files of electronic accounting data shall be stored in an off-site data storage center periodically and that will be in a distant location of the office premise to avoid possibility of loss of all copies of back-up data in case of any unwanted event/incident.

Separate Chart of Accounts for CPF

Chart of Accounts Overview

Since computerization of accounting is in the offing, a chart of accounts (major heads of accounts) showing major splits of expenses, income, assets and liabilities needs to be prepared. This will, however, depend largely on the software used.

Distribution of Chart of Accounts

After preparation of a chart of accounts, this shall be distributed among the data entry operators, viewers and reviewers of the electronic accounting data.

Control of Chart of Accounts

The Chairman of TIB CPF shall remain in charge overall of computerization, designing and redesigning the chart, determining and numbering descriptions of transactions and the codes, and changing those, as deemed appropriate.

Account Definitions

Each account shall be defined in details to facilitate recording of expenses, income, assets and liabilities under each account head.

Changes to the Chart of Accounts

Any change or modification/editing in chart of accounts will require authorization of the Chairman. A filled-up format with information of existing chart and proposed change/modification shall be submitted to the Chairman for authorization. Once authorization is done, the designated staff will modify chart keeping earlier accounting records unchanged.

11. Records of Payment

A reconciliation statement shall be prepared by the concerned staff for the Chairman, the Treasurer and the Member Secretary for their perusal and observation before filing. Any anomaly, if found, shall be sorted out as soon as possible and reported to the Chairman of the fund. Bank Reconciliation shall be reviewed by the Member Secretary and approved by the Chairman.

Receivable Reconciliation with project:
CPF (monthly contribution of both employee and employer) will be received from the projects within the month. The designated staff will prepare project-wise monthly receivable statement and ensure all receipts according to statement. If any gap is found between receivable and received amount it shall be collected from the respective project immediately after identification of the gap.

Day to day Operations and Records:
All accounting work of deposit and withdrawal of fund, disbursement and recordkeeping of all transactions shall be the responsibility of the assigned person posted at the TIB Dhaka office, who will conduct the same under the supervision of the Senior Manager - Finance & Administration. Vouchers, cash book, general ledger, bank reconciliation statement, receipt & payment account, Investment schedule, loan schedule, payment record book etc shall be prepared and preserved.

Cash Flow Analysis:
Cash flow shall be analyzed from time to time to estimate the amount of cash that it will have at hand at any time, CPF trends in cash inflow and cash outflow shall be identified to ascertain whether a shortfall or surplus in cash could potentially occur. Cash flow shall be analyzed in each time of issuing cheque/transfer and the designated staff would report to the Chairman through the Member Secretary for the next investment.
SECTION IV

12. Compliance with Laws, Regulations, and Organization Policies

Relevant laws & regulations of the Government of Bangladesh and the Organization’s policies would be complied in all aspects of TIB CPF.

The change/amendment in relevant laws and regulations of the Government of Bangladesh would immediately be in effect and no further authorization of the appropriate authority of TIB CPF would be required. Any change/amendment in TIB CPF Operations and Management procedure would require authorization of appropriate authority of TIB CPF before initiating compliance with the changed/amended policies.

In all financial transactions of TIB CPF, full compliance with the TIB CPF Trust Deed & Rules shall be ensured.
SECTION V

23. Second Advance/Loan to Members
A Member cannot be granted a second advance before repayment of an advance already paid to him/her. In case of early settlement and taking further loan, at least one day will be required for collection of refund and confirmation of deposit of refund to TIB CPF bank account. After confirmation of deposit of refunded amount to TIB CPF bank a/c, next advance may be disbursed to members.

24. Early settlement of Advance/Loan
If any member wants to settle his/her PF advance before completion of six installments, in that case, he/she can settle his/her advance paying at least 6 months of interest for early settlement. However, if he/she wants to settle his/her advance after payment of six installments then 1% service charge will be added to the rest of the principal amount. In case of separation of a member from TIB on the grounds of disciplinary action, and if advance/loan remains outstanding after payment of less than 06 (six) installments, only 1% service charge shall be charged.

In case of early settlement of advance/loan, cheque from any bank account issued by the member in the name of “Transparency International Bangladesh Employees’ Provident Fund” shall be granted.

25. Division of Net Income
The net income of the Fund for each year shall consist of income from investments together with any realized surplus received in that year from the sale of any of the funds securities, less all expenses other than those payable by the Organization and less depreciation in the market value of investments of the fund taken as a whole.

Such net income of the Fund for the year, including forfeiture and the balance brought forward from the previous year, if any, as the Trustees in their sole discretion decide, shall be distributed amongst the members in accordance with their individual balances on the 31st March of the current year on Pro-rata basis.

26. Maintenance of the fund and Currency
The Fund shall be maintained in Bangladesh in BDT.

27. Financial Year of TIB CPF
Financial year of TIB CPF shall be set in accounting database as per registration with the NBR that is from 1st April to 31 March.
SECTION VII

28. Individual balance notification to Members
Although TIB CPF accounting year is from 01st April to 31st March but Tax assessment year is from 01st July to 30th June. For individual tax assessment purpose, the designated staff will distribute the yearly balance that is from July to June to individual members through email. Balance of individual members will be generated from software so that signature of any Board Member is not required.

29. Payment to Retiring and Outgoing Members
   a. An employee shall be entitled to receive all deposit to his/her credit including the contribution made by the Organization and profit thereof:
      i) If a member resigns from his/her service upon due notice after he has completed 2 years of service;
      ii) If a member resigns or retires on account of disablement, illness or old age if certified by the Organization’s medical officers or by a qualified medical practitioner or for other reasons which seem adequate to the Trustees;
      iii) If a member’s service is dispensed with by the Organization on account of reduction of the Organization’s establishment.
   b. In case of dismissal on account of dishonesty, misconduct, defalcation or gross negligence, the member shall be entitled to a refund of his/her own contribution and the profit thereof and such member shall not be entitled to the portion of the Organization’s contribution and profits thereof of the fund. The balance not paid to the member under this rule shall be forfeited to the fund.
   c. An employee who resigns from his/her service upon the notice earlier than 2 years of service shall be entitled to receive his/her own contribution and profits thereof in full. The contribution made by the Organization to his/her account and profits thereof shall be payable in the following scale:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Years of Service</th>
<th>Percentage</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Less than 2 (two) years</td>
<td>Nil</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Two years or Over 2 (two) years of service</td>
<td>100%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

30. Forfeiture of Organization Contribution
At the end of each month the Organization, from its own resources, will contribute to the Fund, on non-refundable basis, an amount equal to the amount of contribution made by all the Members in the same month. The contribution so made by the Organization shall be distributed among the individual Members by crediting their respective accounts with the amounts equal to their respective contribution for that month.

An employee who resigns from his/her position submitting a notice earlier than 2 years of service but not for any reason mentioned in this manual shall be entitled to receiving his/her own contribution and profits thereof in full.

Such member shall not be entitled to the amount of contribution made by the Organization. The amount shall be transferred to the Forfeiture Account, which shall be added with the net income and be distributed amongst the members on pro rata basis.

The net income of the Fund for each year shall consist of income from investments together with any realized surplus received in that year from the sale of any of the funds securities, less all expenses other than those payable by the Organization and less depreciation in the market value of investments of the fund taken as a whole. Such net income of the Fund for the year, including forfeiture and the balance brought forward from the previous year, if any, as the Trustees in their sole discretion decide, shall be distributed amongst the members in accordance with their individual balances on the 31st March of the current year on Pro-rata basis.

31. Accounts for of Provisional rate of interest and final rate of interest

Before paying to any outgoing member, the month will be closed based on provisional rate of interest. At the end of the year or on maturity of investment securities, interest will be calculated on the basis of actual rate of interest. After completion of audit, if any amount is found payable to any member who left, the amount (considering actual rate of interest and provisional rate of interest) will be paid to the member.

Provision for future expenditure shall also be made in each month for the portion of distribution of annual expenditure to the outgoing member. After completion of audit, if any amount is found payable to the member who left, the amount (considering provisional expenditure and actual expenditure) will be paid to the member.
SECTION VIII

32. Statements of Account
The Trustees shall maintain proper books of accounts of the Fund at the Registered Office of the Organization or at such place as the Trustees may decide.

A separate account shall be kept for each member in the form prescribed by the National Board of Revenue for use for a recognized provident fund. As soon as possible after the end of each year following financial reports shall be prepared:

a. Balance Sheet showing the Assets and Liabilities of the Fund as at the end of the year;

b. Income and Appropriation Account showing the income of the Fund during that year and the manner in which it has been appropriated pursuant to these rules;

c. Statement showing the account balances in the books of the Fund of the account in the name of each member as at the end of that year.

33. Annual Audit
TIB CPF is registered with the National Board of Revenue (NBR). In compliance with relevant rules of the Government of Bangladesh and also in the interest of members of the fund, financial statements of TIB CPF have to be audited by Audit Firms to get independent opinion of Audit Firms on fair presentation of information in the financial statements.

There is also requirement of submission of Audited Accounts to the NBR as per terms of Registration. To comply with that requirement, the Board of Trustees shall also appoint Audit Firms for auditing financial statements of TIB CPF.

Financial statements of TIB CPF shall be the representation of fund’s financial system maintained by the designated staff and supervised by the Board of Trustees. The statements shall be presented in such a manner that the user/reader of the statement can recognize that significant accounting estimates and judgments and most appropriate accounting principles from among several alternative accounting principles and methods have been followed. TIB CPF shall also present information in financial statements fairly.
