(k) to receive contributions, grants, donations, gifts from persons it may so decide to do.

19. (a) The number of Trustees shall not be less than five nor more than eleven.

(b) The Trustees for the time being shall consist of the 8 (eight) persons whose names appear under the provisions hereof and such other Trustees as may be elected by them.

(c) Trustees shall be elected in accordance with the procedure prescribed by the Trustees which may be amended from time to time.

(d) An elected Trustee shall hold office for a term of three years, but shall be eligible for re-election.

20. Every new Trustee elected in place of an outgoing Trustee whether retiring or elected to fill a casual vacancy caused by death, resignation or otherwise of a Trustee shall hold office for the remainder of the term of the Trustee in whose place the new Trustee is elected.

21. In case any of the said Trustees for the time being of these presents shall become bankrupt or insolvent or shall be convicted of any criminal offence involving moral turpitude, then and in every such case it shall be lawful for the other trustees to give notice to such trustee of becoming bankrupt or insolvent or being convicted of any criminal offence involving moral turpitude by notice at his last known address intimating that he is removed as trustee of these presents and thereupon such trustee of these presents shall cease to be a trustee of these presents and such trustee shall after receipt of such notice and whenever called upon to do so, do all necessary acts on his part to vest in the said trust fund in the continuing Trustee or Trustees or any such continuing trustee or trustees jointly with the new Trustees to be appointed under the provisions in that behalf hereinafter contained.

22. In case and so often as the Trustees hereby constituted or any future trustees or trustee of these presents be removed or shall die or desire to retire or refuse or become incapable to act in the Trust hereof or take the benefit of the Insolvency Law for the time being in force then and in every such case it shall be lawful for the surviving or continuing Trustees for the time being of these presents to elect a new Trustee.

23. Upon every such election of the Trustees as aforesaid the Trust Funds shall be so transferred as to become vested in the New Trustees or Trustee jointly with the continuing Trustees and every newly elected Trustee as well as before as after the said Trust Funds shall have become vested in him shall have all the powers and authorities of the Trustees under these presents.

24. The Trustees or persons charged with the duty of electing new or additional Trustees under these presents shall be bound to follow or observe the following rules in the matter:
(a) The election of a new/additional Trustee(s) will be made by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the Trustees or the number closest to it as possible.

(b) The new or additional Trustee would be an individual of high distinction.

25. (i) The Trustees may meet together for the despatch of the business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings and proceedings as they may think fit.

(ii) A resolution passed without any meeting of the Trustees and evidenced by writing under the hands of the majority of the Trustees shall be as valid and effectual as a Resolution duly passed at a meeting of the Trustees held in accordance with the provisions of these presents.

26. All books of accounts, records, title deeds and other documents of the properties of the Trust shall remain in the custody of the Chairman for the time being.

27. In case of any difference of opinion among the said Trustees for the time being in any manner concerning the said Trust including interpretation of these presents, the power of appointment of the Trustees or any other matter of the Trust or questions relating to or arising to or arising out of the said Trust or its business, subject to the other provisions hereof, the opinion of the majority and in case of tie, the casting vote of the Chairman shall prevail and be binding and conclusive.
28. IT IS HEREBY DECLARED that the Trust shall be and remain irrevocable for all times to come but in case the Trustees so decide unanimously, they may hand over the corpus of the Trust Fund to any other Trust or Institution or Society being a Society registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860 or having identical or similar objects and purposes to such terms and conditions as the Trustees may think to impose at the time of handing over the Trust Fund to the intent and purpose that thereafter the Trust Fund shall be owned and managed by such Trust. Institution or Society for the purpose of their objects.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties hereto set and subscribed their respective hands the day and year above written.
